- 1.) PLCA Membership: Membership in the PLCA is automatic to the named owners upon transfer of the property and payment of appropriate assessment. The fee is paid by the buyer and collected at the time of closing. No membership application or certificate of approval is required. A copy of the closing statement including proof of payment of the capital assessment fee is required for membership and issuance of membership cards. The PLCA requires a copy of the warranty deed.
 - a. Initial Capital Assessment: $1,500.00 or
 - b. Re-sale Capital Assessment $1,500.00
- 2.) Operation Assessments: The PLCA is a homeowner's association, pursuant to the declaration for Pelican Landing under Florida law. Membership is required of all property owners of Pelican Landing. The PLCA annually assesses its members for operation expenses, which include office, recreational, social, building maintenance and cable fees. Billing is in the fourth quarter of each year, and is paid directly by the owner. Payment is due January 1. Late fees are added 30 days later and include a $50.00 penalty plus 18 % interest per year.

The 2008 Assessment of $1,202.75 is due by January 1, 2008
The 2008 Cable Assessment of $315.25 is due by January 1, 2008
- 3.) Pending Litigation/Deed Covenant Compliance; the PLCA does not respond to questions regarding any pending litigation or Board policy. Should you have specific legal questions, please refer them to The PLCA Attorney, Tom Hart, Hart & Swett, P.A. Attorney at Law, 1625 Hendry Street, Third Floor, Fort Myers, FL 33901. Any questions concerning deed covenant compliance should be referred to Pelican Landing Community Association, 24501 Walden Center Drive, Bonita Springs, FL 34134 (239) 947-5977.
- 4.) Insurance: Gulfshore Insurance, Inc. for all insurance inquiries
- 5.) Return of Photo ID Cards: PLCA ID cards of the seller(s) are to be returned to the PLCA prior to closing to avoid a $25.00 per card charge due at closing.
